

Johnston FOP Lodge 16
Helping Johnston with Service and Pride

News Release
For Immediate Release

Communications 401-378-0817

Contact: Carol Costa C²
carolannecosta@gmail.com

December 17, 2008 Johnston, RI Today, Johnston FOP Lodge 16 announced its gift of $290.00 in financial support of the Tri Town Community Action Agency. The membership of the Lodge was asked to provide a gift of a food card, in order to assist local needy families in the holiday season. Joseph DeSantis, Executive Director of Tri- Town accepted the gift on behalf of the agency. Dave DeTora, FOP Lodge 16 President noted the dedication of the members of Lodge 16 to be proactive and always try to give back to the community in some measure. "My brothers and sisters in Lodge 16 are mindful that so many families are facing very tough times and this is a small gesture from them." He continued, "The work done by Tri Town is so important of our community and we recognize all of its efforts and are encouraged that so many of our members stepped up to contribute. Our only hope is that this provides some food and hope to people in need."

The Johnston FOP Lodge encourages information and requests from any group or cause that is in need. "We will do as much as we can for our community and those in need. Please use our website and help us help you." Said DeTora, "On behalf of all the members of FOP Lodge 16, happy holidays and a wish for renewed hope and optimism for our town, state and nation in the New Year."

www.johnstonfop.org
info@johnstonfop.org

Mission

The mission of the Johnston FOP Lodge 16 is to encourage and carry out fraternal, educational, charitable, and social activities among law enforcement officers, both active and retired. To cultivate a spirit of fraternalism by promoting mutual goodwill among our members and the people we serve. To do public good throughout our town, state and country by providing assistance to people, charitable agencies and organizations within our town of Johnston, Rhode Island.

ABOUT TRI-TOWN COMMUNITY ACTION AGENCY

The Tri-Town Community Action Agency, a private non-profit corporation, has provided a wide variety of social services to the disadvantaged of northwestern Rhode Island since its establishment during the Johnson Administration's "War on Poverty" in 1964. The majority of programs operated by Tri-Town Community Action Agency serve the residents in the Towns of Johnston, North Providence, Smithfield, North Smithfield, Burrillville, Gloucester, Scituate and Foster; however, the Agency does provide limited services in every city and town throughout the state of Rhode Island.